Assuring Hawaiians of No Present Change in the Situation.

Conditions Force the Minister to Seek New Instructions.

Cutter Corwin Sails, Probably with the Desired Communications.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 5.— The barkentine Klickitat, Capt. Cutler, arrived to-day from Honolulu with advices to Nov. 20, four days after the steamer Alameda sailed for San Francisco. In an interview published in The Evening Star, Minister Willis is report-

You are authorized to state that n change in the present situation will take place for several weeks. I brought with me certain instructions from the United States Government on the Hawailan sit-

"Since my arrival contingencies have arisen about which neither the United States Government nor myself was aware when I left Washington. I have thought best in exercising of the disretion allowed, to submit those matters to Washington before proceeding further carry out my original instructions." This statement gave the annexationets much satisfaction and the royalists ere much displeased. On account of the many rumors current of contemplated action of the Queen's supporters, the Provisional Government found it necessary to keep two companies of soldiers under arms for companies of soldiers under arms for several nights after the Alameda sailed. The editor of the Evening Star requested Minister Willis to submit a statement to the public to allay the general feeling of uncertainty, and it was then that Mr. Willis made the statement quoted above. He added:

"I forwarded my despatches to Washington by to-day's steamer, and until I receive an answer to them no change will take place in the present situation, nor will any be allowed."

"What do you mean by the expression receive an answer to them no change will take place in the present situation, nor will any be allowed."

"What do you mean by the expression 'Nor will any be allowed?"

"I mean just this—that until the time comes for us to carry out my instructions the peace and good order of this community will be kept undisturbed in the interests of humanity; that any attempt made by any person or persons to make trouble will be promptly checked and punished. You may put the matter more plainly, and say that even if the Provisional Government discharged all its troops to-day, no lawlessness would be allowed for one moment under the present situation of affairs.

"The whole Hawaiian question is now in abeyance, and nothing that the newspapers can say or do wil after the situation one lota. I make this statement on my own responsibility and in the hope that it will allay the present excitement. No one need fear treuble and no lawlessness will be permitted."

After this statement rumors began to fly about that the Queen's supporters would make a final raily in her behalf.

The crews of the United States men-of-war Philadelphia and Adams were held in readiness to be landed on a moment's notice. The Queea's advocate came out the next day with a denial of the Willis interview, saying he was misquoted, and by inference gave encouragement to the idea that Willis had received an imperative order to restore the Queen.

The newspapers containing Blount's report had not reached the Islands when the Kilckitat sailed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—Hawaiian Conseil Wilder, when he read the news which arived last night from Honolulu, via Port Townsend, was naturally niessed. When asked what unexpected contingencies Minister Willis had probably found in Honolulu he saild:

"I think he found that the men composing the Provisional Government of Hawaii were high-minded, law-abiding citizens to the gate and a flithement and and and and and and a was naturally not and the sailed.

think he found that the home of the Provisional Government of all were high-minded, law-abiding us, instead of fillbusters such as he halled the them to be. This

"President Cleveland's statement in his message to Congress that he had re-ceived no definite news from Willis is corroborated by what Minister Willis has said in the interview published in the Hawalian paper."

The Executive Committee presented resolutions askinge unaminous action in aiding the railroads to bring the perpetrators of the frauds to justice.

They were adopted, and a sum of $5,000 was appropriated to help along the prosecutions in case arrests are made.

The Association has also ratified the largest list of claims, amounting to over 55,000, ever presented against it. Most of this is the outcome of the many wrecks during the Fair. They also admitted twenty-seven new members.

The entire Convention will visit the Pulitzer Building to-morrow and view the city from the dome. The programme of amagements will conclude on Thursday night by a banquet at the Metropolitan, to which many of the city officials and railroad magnates have been invited.

stated that his patient had not attempted suicide, but was ill with nervous pristration.

Dr. Wolf indignantly denied that here was any evidence that Mr. Louis had tried to kill himself.

Joseph H. Louis is head bookkeeper for N. J. Schloss & Cq., clothiers, at 653 Broadway, treasurer of a land scheme at 173 Broadway, and resides at 102 West Seventy-lifth street.

Mr. Kohn could not be found at his office this morning, and no one there could give any explanation of the affair or reason why Kohn should have given Dr. Wolf's address for that of Louis.

At N. J. Schloss & Co,'s it was said that nothing was wrong in Louis's accounts so far as was known, but that an investigation would be made, Louis is thirty-live years old, and has been with the firm since he was sixteen years old. The firm had always believed him honest, and knew of no reason for Louis to attempt to commit suicide, nor had they yet learned that he had made such an attempt.
